

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Judy Farnsworth has been an employee of the state of South Dakota since October 28, 1987; and,

Whereas, Judy has served with distinction as a secretary in the Department of Health-Vital Records, Health Protection, and as a senior secretary for Emergency Medical Services, and office of Weights and Measures and Inspection Program; and,

Whereas, Judy has distinguished herself by her service to the state of South Dakota's Emergency Medical Services Office by her leadership, commitment to excellence, loyalty, and dedication to duty; and,

Whereas, Judy will retire after serving the state of South Dakota for the past 22 years, and providing excellent service to the ambulance services and emergency medical technicians in South Dakota; and,

Whereas, The Emergency Medical Services office will greatly miss her warm smile, friendly personality, loyalty, and caring nature; and,

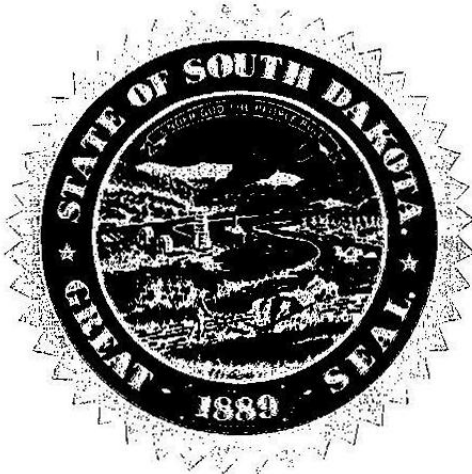

Whereas, Judy's retirement plans include spending time with her children and grandchildren, card stamping, involvement with her church, National Guard Support Group, and traveling; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 21, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard
